

Testimonials from teens who have been supported by Beacon House and funded by the ASF

It has been very helpful and Inbar has been amazing

They have made me feel safe and more confident in who I am.

Friendly people and staff,
look forward to my sessions, comfortable
room, warm environment.

Lots of fun
things. It's helped me to understand my feelings and actions.

Good to talk with someone about things.

I learnt a lot about stuff I didn't know about.

That they listened to what I was telling them and did their best to help me

I could talk to someone without being judged for my issues. They actually listened to me with what I was talking about.

It's easy to talk about any problems or worries

I was able to talk about anything I wanted to and I got the right help

I was understood and felt like I received help appropriate for my problems
