THE POWER OF THE SENSES

RE-BUILDING SENSORY SYSTEMS AND SUPPORTING REGULATION IN CHILDREN IMPACTED BY EARLY TRAUMA (6 HOURS)

The sensory systems are a complex array of sensors and pathways throughout the whole body that enable us to understand the world around us, and what is happening inside our bodies. Children's sensory systems are impacted when they survive extreme loss, trauma or attachment disruption. They can become 'stuck' over-experiencing or under-experiencing their senses. This affects how they move, play, communicate... in fact all aspects of their everyday lives.

This creative online training will introduce you to the eight sensory systems; giving an overview of what they are, how they develop, and what happens when there is early disruption. It will explore what happens in the sensory systems when children are responding to their environment from the survival (fight, flight, freeze or collapse) part of their brain. Participants will be offered a range of hands on ideas and practical tools to support children at home, in the classroom and in other settings. This is a real 'how to' training which will help any adult supporting a child with sensory disruption to regulate and settle their brain and body.

ABOUT THE TRAINERS

Mel Campbell is a Specialist Paediatric Occupational Therapist at Beacon House. She combines her interests of the body and mind, with her knowledge of the sensory systems to help children with developmental trauma feel safe in their bodies. Through the lens of sensory, attachment and regulation, Mel supports children and their families to come together through play and fun. She is passionate about developing accessible regulatory strategies which can be embedded into everyday life.

Candia Slaughter is also a Specialist Paediatric Occupational Therapist at Beacon House. Throughout her career in the charitable sector and at Beacon House, Candia has always had a passion for trauma-informed interventions. She recognises the importance of understanding developmental trauma and its huge impact on everyday life. She enjoys working with families through sensory intervention, play, movement and connection.

Helen Townsend is the artist and Creative Advisor here at Beacon House. She collaborates closely with Mel and Candia to bring together their specialist content into a creative, beautiful, resourceful online training experience. As an adoptive parent herself, Helen is inspired by her experience living with trauma and loss in how she portrays the learning through her artwork.
